New Ways to Wellbeing

What is the Explore programme?

The Explore programme is an opportunity to discover more about ourselves and how to improve our mental health and wellbeing using arts and nature activities. This is an exciting opportunity to try something new, make friends and challenge yourself. You will be supported by highly trained volunteers who will be there to make sure that you feel safe in a friendly and relaxed environment.

Activities include:

Arts and crafts, boating, raft-building, bushcraft, archery, cooking, building our own Wellbeing toolkits and much more!

Who can apply?

Anyone aged 16-18 who has had experience of poor wellbeing and wants to learn more about feeling better.

When and where does the Explore programme take place?

Monday 31st July - Friday 11th August 10am til 3pm, Norwich City Centre.
