

Dear families,

Welcome back!

I have just come in from the field – Freya Symonds, a 1st team Norwich City footballer has been in to coach some of the girls – much excitement. They will visit once a week during this half term. You may know our theme this half term is space. Take a look at the website to find out what we will be learning about.

To update you, interviews for the new executive Headteacher will take place next week – I will keep you updated.

Best wishes
